A man and a woman are standing outdoors, possibly on a rooftop or balcony, with a city skyline visible in the background. The man is wearing a light blue vertically striped dress shirt and a dark blue tie with a small, repeating pattern. He has his left hand in his pocket and his right arm around the woman's waist. The woman is wearing a light pink vertically striped dress shirt and dark trousers. She is looking down and smiling. The overall mood is professional yet intimate.
